

Nash-Zimmer Transportation Center Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Nash-Zimmer Transportation Center?

- The Nash-Zimmer Transportation Center serves as a central transportation hub for UConn, Windham Region Transit District, and inter-city bus systems including Peter Pan. One of the most exciting components of the center is the “next bus system” that allows people waiting for a bus to know when the bus is actually arriving. Busses send a GPS signal to displays inside and outside the Nash-Zimmer.

Where is the Nash-Zimmer Transportation Center located?

- The facility is located adjacent to the Storrs Center parking garage at 23 Royce Circle, Storrs Mansfield, CT.

What are your hours?

- Mon-Fri 7 AM to 7 PM, Saturday 10 AM to 6 PM

Where do the Peter Pan buses that stop at the Nash-Zimmer go?

- Typically, there are buses that run to Hartford CT, Farmington CT, Danbury CT, Waterbury CT, New Haven CT, New York NY, Providence RI, and Boston MA. However, it is important to check the schedules, stops, and times on the Peter Pan Bus website (<http://peterpanbus.com>), as it differs depending on day and time.

- With a credit card, you can purchase tickets online at the Nash Zimmer or go to <https://tds.peterpanbus.com>. You can also pay for tickets in cash at the UConn Co-Op on campus. The Nash-Zimmer does not accept cash purchases on-site.

What is the Bike Commuter Club?

- The Bike Commuter Club was established to encourage members of the community to travel more eco-consciously. In joining the Commuter Club you will reduce the traffic caused by peak-hour congestion and also reduce your own carbon footprint. Within the membership, the club provides indoor bike storage, key card access to the building, showers, and lockers.
